THE GOSPEL THIS WEEK

I found the following meditation on the Ascension in the Magnificat pocket missal: 'This is my Son, the Beloved; my favour rests on him. He sent his beloved for us. He sent his Only Begotten Son to walk among us - the tired, the weary, and the weak - because he knew we could not help ourselves. His beloved teaches us to focus our gaze on the heavens and is our only salvation. He is the one who would be born of a Virgin and walk this earth completely sinless and submissive to the point of death on a cross so that we may have eternity. ... Jesus is the living gift of our heavenly Father's eternal love for all of us.' God bless you this week, Fr Bruno.

ON PRAYER – Words from Blessed Mother Teresa
'I believe there is no one who needs God more than I do. I feel so useless and weak. Because I cannot rely on myself, I rely on him, 24 hours a day. My secret is simple: I pray; I love prayer. The urge to pray is always within me. Prayer enlarges the heart until it is ready to receive God's gift of himself. We would so love to pray properly, but then we fail. If you want to pray better, pray more. If we want to be capable of loving, we must pray.'
